

East to East Photography Workshops

with Klavdij Sluban

Montenegro and Albania

From Sunday 25, September to Saturday 1st,
October 2022

Total immersion during a week in the heart of the Balkans in Montenegro and Albania with Klavdij Sluban, French photographer of Slovenian origin. Internationally renowned, he has been traveling in the Balkans for the last 20 years.

Montenegro and Albania are two fascinating countries to be visited. The economic growth is opening, grotesquely changing the urban landscapes. Clashes occur between the sea and the mountains as well as between traditional and modern life.

Specificity of the workshop

The specificity of this workshop is that we all stay together in an ancient olive mill restored into a wonderful spacious house that has kept the soul of the initial place but with all modern comfort. Plus a beautiful garden and a small river with an old bridge parting the house from the olive grove.

Located in the medieval village of Stari Bar, South-East Montenegro, the spot is breathtaking, situated between mountains, and the Adriatic sea. The geographical position will allow daily outings on foot or by minibus (rides between 20mn and an hour). Trips will be made to Skadar lake, Boka Kotorska, a gem between the sea and the overwhelming mountains, Shkodra in Albania, a world in itself or Ada Bojana island.

Klavdij Sluban has published “Balkans-Transit” with the writer François Maspéro in 1997. Translated in several languages, the book helps to understand this region as fascinating as complex.

During this week of workshop, each participant will be brought to develop one's personal photographic writing. A sensitive and personal series of photos will be built with Klavdij's experience and passion.

Photographic immersion in Montenegro and Albania

Our knowledge of the Balkans will be an asset to visit places off the beaten tracks like orthodox churches on the coast, mosques on the road to Shkodra, medieval villages, modern and fast grown cities, meeting priests or youth in the cities.

The tradition of welcoming the stranger will allow photographing in various circumstances, in total freedom. Speaking the local languages, we will create a privileged relationship between the local people and the participants.

East to East Photography Workshops

Tereza Kozinc and Klavdij Sluban founded East to East Photography Workshops to spread photography as a visual language in Eastern countries offering all the ingredients to express one's personal way of photographing. Both the warmth of its inhabitants and the tradition of welcoming the traveler in Central Europe and the Balkans enable a pleasant and true insight of places where many jewels are still to be discovered.

Main goals

« SHOW ME YOUR PHOTOS AND I WILL TELL YOU WHO YOU ARE ».

A constructive criticism will give each participant the way to channel one's personal point of according to the various situations. Klavdij Sluban's experience in sharing generously his knowledge gives each participant the possibility to find one's personal writing (or style). There will be every day photo sessions and editing in the editing room by the end of the day.
